

EMMA IN MONTEREY
April 30, 2013

By Michael Erlewine (Michael@Erlewine.net)

Here is a photo of Emma at the Monterey Aquarium on Cannery Row along California's classic coastline.

Emma is looking at the big fish and probably saying "Oh wow!," as only she can say it. This shot taken by her mom Anne.

Both mom and Emma will be flying home tomorrow, so we are anxious to see them again.

I am told that Emma especially liked the sea otters, which were introduced to her as "water dogs." She knows and likes dogs.

Have a safe flight girls!
